

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA

NEQUAVA MATTHEWS, on behalf of herself and
others similarly situated,

Plaintiff,

v.

PHILADELPHIA CORPORATION FOR AGING,
Defendant.

2:22-cv-04632-JFM

CONSENT TO PARTICIPATE IN SETTLEMENT

I have read the form entitled "Notice of Settlement" and wish to participate in the settlement of the case Nequava Matthews, et al. v. Philadelphia Corporation for Aging, Case No. 2:22-cv-04632-JFM (E.D. Pa) (the "Lawsuit"), which I previously joined pursuant to Section 16(b) of the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

RELEASE OF CLAIMS. I understand that, if the Court approves the settlement, I will be bound by the settlement's terms and, in consideration for the settlement payment, will release and forever discharge Philadelphia Corporation for Aging (as well as its past, present, or future parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, related companies, successors, predecessors, owners, officers, directors, agents, employees, heirs, spouses, administrators, executors, partners, assigns, and insurers) from all claims brought pursuant to any federal, state, or local law (including the FLSA and the PMWA) for unpaid wages (including overtime wages) and/or any associated damages, reimbursements, unpaid advances, civil and/or statutory penalties, liquidated damages, punitive damages, multiple damages, interest, attorneys' fees, litigation costs, restitution, and/or equitable relief that were asserted or could have been asserted in the Lawsuit or that relate to or arise out of the facts alleged in any version of the complaint filed in the Lawsuit from November 18, 2019 through August 20, 2024. This release is intended to cover "wage and hour" claims arising under Pennsylvania state laws, any applicable state, county, or local laws, statutes, regulations, ordinances, or wage orders and alleging unpaid overtime, regular, straight-time, or minimum wages; failure to provide compliant meal and/or rest breaks; failure to pay meal and/or rest period compensation; failure to maintain required business records; failure to provide accurate or complete itemized wage statements; failure to compensate for all time worked; failure to properly calculate compensable time worked or the regular rate of pay; waiting time penalties; failure to pay all wages due in a timely manner, including upon employment termination; and contributions to any 401(k), 403(b), pension plan, or other retirement or employee benefit plan based on payments made by reason of the Agreement.

For tax reporting purposes, 50% of the settlement will be on a W-2 Tax form and represents my back wages. The other 50% will be reported on Form 1099, which represents liquidated damages. I agree that Philadelphia Corporation for Aging has made no representations regarding the proper tax treatment of any payments.

I submit to the personal jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania for purposes of enforcing the Release.

I understand that receipt of my settlement award is contingent on the Court granting final approval of the settlement.

I have read the form entitled “Notice of Settlement” and wish to participate in the settlement of the case Nequava Matthews, et al. v. Philadelphia Corporation for Aging, Case No. 2:22-cv-04632-JFM (E.D. Pa) (the “Lawsuit”), which I previously joined pursuant to Section 16(b) of the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

RELEASE OF CLAIMS. I understand that, if the Court approves the settlement, I will be bound by the settlement’s terms and, in consideration for the settlement payment, will release and forever discharge Philadelphia Corporation for Aging (as well as its past, present, or future parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, related companies, successors, predecessors, owners, officers, directors, agents, employees, heirs, spouses, administrators, executors, partners, assigns, and insurers) from all claims brought pursuant to any federal, state, or local law (including the FLSA and the PMWA) for unpaid wages (including overtime wages) and/or any associated damages, reimbursements, unpaid advances, civil and/or statutory penalties, liquidated damages, punitive damages, multiple damages, interest, attorneys’ fees, litigation costs, restitution, and/or equitable relief that were asserted or could have been asserted in the Lawsuit or that relate to or arise out of the facts alleged in any version of the complaint filed in the Lawsuit from November 18, 2019 through August 20, 2024. This release is intended to cover “wage and hour” claims arising under Pennsylvania state laws, any applicable state, county, or local laws, statutes, regulations, ordinances, or wage orders and alleging unpaid overtime, regular, straight-time, or minimum wages; failure to provide compliant meal and/or rest breaks; failure to pay meal and/or rest period compensation; failure to maintain required business records; failure to provide accurate or complete itemized wage statements; failure to compensate for all time worked; failure to properly calculate compensable time worked or the regular rate of pay; waiting time penalties; failure to pay all wages due in a timely manner, including upon employment termination; and contributions to any 401(k), 403(b), pension plan, or other retirement or employee benefit plan based on payments made by reason of the Agreement.

For tax reporting purposes, 50% of the settlement will be on a W-2 Tax form and represents my back wages. The other 50% will be reported on a Form 1099, which represents liquidated damages. I agree that Philadelphia Corporation for Aging has made no representations regarding the proper tax treatment of any payments.

I submit to the personal jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania for purposes of enforcing the Release.

I understand that receipt of my settlement award is contingent on the Court granting final approval of the settlement.

NEQUAVA MATTHEWS, on behalf of herself and
others similarly situated,

Plaintiff,

v.

PHILADELPHIA CORPORATION FOR AGING,
Defendant.

2:22-cv-04632-JFM

CONSENT TO PARTICIPATE IN SETTLEMENT

I have read the form entitled "Notice of Settlement" and wish to participate in the settlement of the case Nequava Matthews, et al. v. Philadelphia Corporation for Aging, Case No. 2:22-cv-04632-JFM (E.D. Pa) (the "Lawsuit"), which I previously joined pursuant to Section 16(b) of the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

RELEASE OF CLAIMS. I understand that, if the Court approves the settlement, I will be bound by the settlement's terms and, in consideration for the settlement payment, will release and forever discharge Philadelphia Corporation for Aging (as well as its past, present, or future parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, related companies, successors, predecessors, owners, officers, directors, agents, employees, heirs, spouses, administrators, executors, partners, assigns, and insurers) from all claims brought pursuant to any federal, state, or local law (including the FLSA and the PMWA) for unpaid wages (including overtime wages) and/or any associated damages, reimbursements, unpaid advances, civil and/or statutory penalties, liquidated damages, punitive damages, multiple damages, interest, attorneys' fees, litigation costs, restitution, and/or equitable relief that were asserted or could have been asserted in the Lawsuit or that relate to or arise out of the facts alleged in any version of the complaint filed in the Lawsuit from November 18, 2019 through August 20, 2024. This release is intended to cover "wage and hour" claims arising under Pennsylvania state laws, any applicable state, county, or local laws, statutes, regulations, ordinances, or wage orders and alleging unpaid overtime, regular, straight-time, or minimum wages; failure to provide compliant meal and/or rest breaks; failure to pay meal and/or rest period compensation; failure to maintain required business records; failure to provide accurate or complete itemized wage statements; failure to compensate for all time worked; failure to properly calculate compensable time worked or the regular rate of pay; waiting time penalties; failure to pay all wages due in a timely manner, including upon employment termination; and contributions to any 401(k), 403(b), pension plan, or other retirement or employee benefit plan based on payments made by reason of the Agreement.

For tax reporting purposes, 50% of the settlement will be on a W-2 Tax form and represents my back wages. The other 50% will be reported on Form 1099, which represents liquidated damages. I agree that Philadelphia Corporation for Aging has made no representations regarding the proper tax treatment of any payments.

I submit to the personal jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania for purposes of enforcing the Release.

I understand that receipt of my settlement award is contingent on the Court granting final approval of the settlement.
